BASKETBALL WA PARTNER WITH TEAMPAY

Providing an instant, secure, and convenient game-day payment solution for participants, clubs and associations will soon become standard as Basketball WA have partnered with Teampay.

Teampay will be the Official Game Day Payments provider for PMBL basketball in Western Australia and will seamlessly integrate with BWA's competition software to provide an exceptional user experience for all participants and administrators.

Teampay CEO Andrew Roberts said the partnership with Basketball WA will provide optimised experiences for all involved in the basketball community.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with Basketball WA to bring Teampay's innovative sports payment technology to the Basketball community in Western Australia. As mobile payments continue to grow and the ability to transact on a mobile device becomes a preferred way to pay, players & teams will now be able to pay their game fees from their mobile device securely, instantly and from anywhere.

At Teampay we provide a mobile payment solution that makes paying for and managing game day payments simple and easy. In working closely with Basketball WA & understanding their values and vision for the sport, we saw strong alignment and so are naturally excited to be partnering with them."

Basketball WA CEO Rob Clement said the addition of Teampay to PMBL will enable participants and administrators to have a smooth experience on game-day.

"We have been listening to the needs of our teams and we know it is important to have a modern and simple game-day payment provider to complement our partnership with our competition software and help basketball stand-out as the sport of choice in WA. We believe Teampay is the best game-day payment provider in the marketplace," Clement said. "We want to make game-day payments for players, associations and clubs easier than ever before, to ensure the game starts on time and everyone has their team sheets finalised quickly and efficiently."

Teampay are ready to assist all associations who would like a game-day payment solution across WA and will integrate with our competition software.
